GAVIN SHARPLES is one of the busiest motivational keynote speakers in South Africa, but he doesn't mind one bit.

He's devoted his life to helping people make the most of theirs. A motivational speaker, author and humourist, Gavin knows how to help people face the difficult issues in life head-on.

Since 1994, Gavin has a track record that speaks for itself (go to the testimonial section to see for yourself). Motivated and committed to reaching their full potential, Gavin's keynotes provide his audience with the keys to achieving more in their work and personal lives.
